International Organization of Plant Biosystematists

The International Organization of Plant Biosystematists (IOPB) was founded in 1960 to promote international cooperation in the study of biosystematics. The IOPB acts on several levels, from coordinating and publishing information on biosystematics to arranging conferences. The IOPB is open to all persons working or interested in the field of biosystematics. The history and past activities of IOPB have been given in Taxon, 31: 386-387, 1982.

An IOPB Newsletter is sent to all members. Such items as current research, requests for materials, meeting reports, publications, etc. are reported. The Editor is Dr. Krystyna Urbanska, Geobotanische Institut, E.T.H., Zürichbergstrasse 38, CH-8044 Zürich, Switzerland.

The Executive are elected prior to each International Botanical Congress and serve between Congresses.

Membership in IOPB is for the period between Congresses. The next International Botanical Congress will be in Berlin in 1987.
