

K. W. CLARK

Department of Plant Science, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Manitoba

At the present time we have been most interested in obtaining raizobia strains which will effectively nodulate birdsfoot trefoil in the prairie provinces, but we also have quite a collection of introductions which we are presently evaluating at Winnipeg.