

The IV International Rangeland Congress will be held in Montpellier, France, 22-26 April 1991. The Congress will include 4 days of presentations and discussions and a one-day field trip. For further information write: Ste International de Congres et Services, VIeme Congres International des Terres de Parcours , 10 rue Charles Amans, 34000 Montpellier, France.

The 2nd International Herbage Seed Conference will be convened 9 - 14 June 1991 at Corvallis, Oregon, USA. The 1st Conference was held in 1987 at Tune, Denmark. The conference is intended for the scientific exchange related to herbage seed production issues of plant breeding, pathology, genetics, physiology, seed production, and management. For further information contact: LaSells Stewart Center, Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR 97331-3102, USA.

The 3rd International Legume Conference has been tentatively scheduled to be held at Kew, England in July, 1992. Topics of discussion will include: phylogeny, molecular biology, structural botany, reproductive biology, biogeography, plant-animal interactions, rhizobia and mycorrhizae, phytochemistry, and genetic characteristics of phenological responses. Further information can be obtained from Dr. R. M. Pohill, Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, Richmond, Surrey, TW9 3AB, Great Britain. FAX 01 948 1197.

The First International Crop Science Congress is scheduled for 14-22 July 1992 in Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa. Joint organizers of the Congress are the Crop Science Society of America and Iowa State University. Further information can be obtained from Dr. Kenneth Frey, Professor of Plant Breeding, Iowa State University, Ames, IA 50011, USA

The XVII International Grassland Congress is scheduled for 8-23 February 1993 in New Zealand and Australia. The Congress opens at Massey University, Palmerston North, New Zealand with mid-Congress tours and specialist sessions at Palmerston North, Hamilton, and Lincoln in New Zealand. Completion of the Congress is at Rockhampton in Queensland, Australia. Further information is available from the XVII Grassland Organising Committee, Agronomy Department, Massey University, Palmerston North, New Zealand.

